Acknowledgement of Country

For the traditional custodians of this land, 'Kambri' has been a meeting place for thousands of years. The name was gifted to the ANU by representatives of the Little Gudgenby River Tribal Council, Buru Ngunawal Aboriginal Corporation, King Brown Tribal Group, and the Ngarigu Currawong Clan.

The Kambri cultural precinct offers a new educational, physical, creative and social experience in a village setting. In time, this contemporary community space hopes to bring the spirit of placemaking and gathering to the ANU.

At Kambri, we value sustainability

Green design thinking

The entire precinct was designed and delivered using the One Planet methodology, a quantitative measure of human demand versus supply of nature. The precinct is operating at 0.6 of a planet per year. University Campuses are using approximately 1.3 planets per year.

Carbon reduction

Across the project, over 31,100 tonnes of CO² was avoided by specifying low carbon materials, and clever design and construction. 40% less embodied carbon was used for the base building, and 50% less for the fitouts.

Carbon smart event guide

ANU Green has updated its Carbon Smart Event Guide, which outlines easy steps to run more sustainable events on and off campus. Events are an important part of the university experience, but they also produce a large amount of greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions. The good news is there are easy steps we can take to have a positive impact.

Many of the suggestions not only reduce our environmental impact but also have lower associated costs while emphasising community engagement.
